EMPOWERING GROWTH THROUGH EXTRAORDINARY WINE AND SPIRITS DISCOVERIES

In every bottle we bring to your business, there's more than just wine or spirits, there's a promise.

Founded in 2017 in New York, City Moonlight was born from the desire to give extraordinary products like Pago del Vicario the recognition they deserved. What began as a focused distribution effort quickly evolved into a vibrant journey of expansion, collaboration, and discovery.

Today, we proudly represent over 60 exclusive producers across 14 countries, with a portfolio of more than 900 SKUs filled with passion, precision, and heritage. Whether it's an award-winning winery or a boutique distillery, each brand we import is carefully curated to inspire and deliver real value.

With operations in New York and New Jersey, we work hand-in-hand with bars, restaurants, and retail stores to craft memorable experiences. Our sales team is empowered by smart tools, guided by shared values, and driven by a deep respect for the stories behind each label.

We invite you to discover, share, and grow with us.

WINES FROM ARGENTINA

Wine Geography of Argentina

“Where Altitude Meets Soul”

Argentina is a land of altitude, sunlight, and striking geographical contrasts, where the towering Andes serve as both a natural barrier and a source of life for viticulture. The country's diverse climates and elevations give rise to wines of remarkable personality and purity. At the heart lies Mendoza, the epicenter of Argentine winemaking, where sun-drenched vineyards and alluvial soils produce structured, expressive reds—most notably Malbec, the country's signature varietal. Within Mendoza, the Uco Valley stands out with its high-altitude terroirs and cool nighttime temperatures, yielding refined wines with vibrant acidity and mineral elegance. Further south, Patagonia—spanning Neuquén and Río Negro—offers a cooler, more temperate climate that favors Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, and crisp aromatic whites, gaining increasing international recognition for its finesse and unique identity.

WINES FROM AUSTRIA

Wine Geography of Austria

“Precision in Every Pour”

Austria is a country where tradition meets precision, producing wines that reflect purity, structure, and a deep connection to place. In the warm, sun-soaked plains of Burgenland, near the Hungarian border, bold reds and rich dessert wines take center stage. Here, Blaufränkisch expresses depth and spice, while the region’s famed Ruster Ausbruch and Trockenbeerenauslese showcase world-class sweetness balanced by vibrant acidity.

To the north, Niederösterreich—Austria’s largest winegrowing area—is known for its elegant whites. The steep vineyards along the Danube River, particularly in subregions like Wachau, Kremstal, and Kamptal, are home to precise, mineral-driven Grüner Veltliner and Riesling that have earned a global reputation for excellence. Together, these regions capture Austria’s dual mastery of power and finesse. whites, capturing the balance and freshness Austria is celebrated for.

WINES FROM GEORGIA

Wine Geography of Georgia

“Where Wine Was Born”

Georgia is considered the cradle of wine, with over 8,000 years of uninterrupted winemaking history.

This deeply rooted culture has shaped a unique and enduring relationship between people, land, and grape.

At the heart of this legacy lies Kakheti, in eastern Georgia, bordered by the Caucasus Mountains and nourished by the Alazani River. With its diverse terroirs and long sun-drenched growing season, Kakheti produces wines that bridge ancient methods and modern refinement.

WINES FROM GERMANY

Wine Geography of Germany

“Roots of the New Frontier”

Germany is renowned for its precision and purity in winemaking, with a cool climate that shapes wines of clarity, freshness, and expressive minerality. In the steep slate slopes of the Mosel, Riesling reaches crystalline elegance with delicate aromatics and vibrant acidity. The nearby Nahe, with volcanic and slate soils, offers structured yet nuanced whites with floral lift. Further south, Rheinhessen Germany’s largest wine region combines tradition and innovation.

In the center, Toscana blends tradition and boldness with Chianti and Supertuscans, while Marche contributes vibrant whites and structured reds. The south delivers warmth and character through Abruzzo, Campania, Basilicata, and Puglia. Sicilia leads in organic wines, with expressive whites, bold reds, and celebrated sweets. Each region reflects a deep-rooted Italian passion for place, craftsmanship, and flavor.

CASTELLARI BERGAGLIO

BETWEEN PIEDMONT AND LIGURIA
AN ENCHANTING CORNER OF NATURE, VINEYARDS AND TIMELESS SILENCE.

The history of Castellari Bergaglio coincides with the journey of a family that began dedicating itself to winemaking in the late 1800s. Producing wines with unmistakable characteristics that are attributable to a particular terroir has always been the company's goal, which focuses all its attention on the Cortese grape, the iconic wine/grape variety of the Gavi production area.

FRATELLI COZZA GUARDIANS OF TRADITION AND INNOVATION

Authentic Wines With Italian Heritage

Fratelli Cozza Wines is more than just a winery: It's a legacy rooted in family, dedication, and the art of winemaking. Our story begins in the lush vineyards of Veneto, Friuli, and Puglia, where we've been producing quality wines for generations.

At Fratelli Cozza Wines, our diverse portfolio satisfies every palate. From robust reds that capture our sun-kissed vineyards to crisp whites that embody the cool breezes of our terroir, every bottle reflects our commitment to excellence. Prosecco, Pinot Grigio, Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, Primitivo, and more fill our portfolio, each meticulously crafted for a unique and unforgettable tasting experience.

WINES FROM PERU

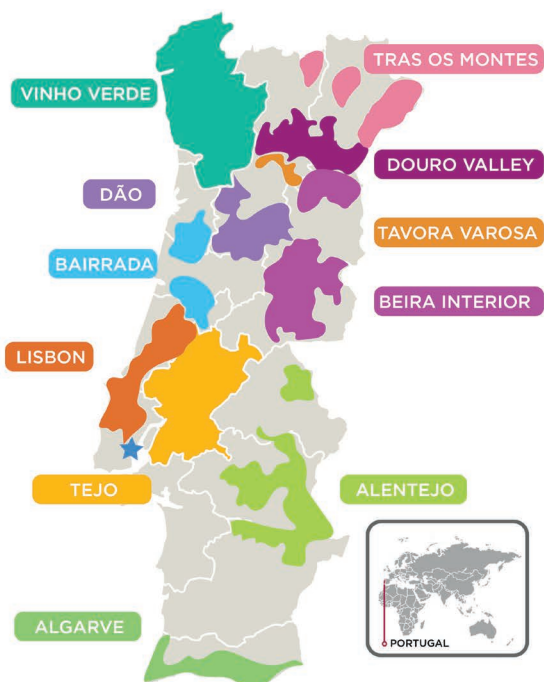

Wine Geography of Peru

“Where the Desert Gives Life”

Peru is an emerging wine country with centuries-old roots, where viticulture thrives between the desert and the Andes. The Ica Valley, located on the southern coast, is the country’s leading wine region, known for its intense sunlight, dry climate, and dramatic temperature shifts between day and night. These conditions foster grapes with natural concentration, balanced acidity, and aromatic expression.

WINES FROM PORTUGAL

Wine Geography of Portugal

“Tradition Rooted in Diversity”

Portugal is a land of deep wine heritage and striking diversity, where ancient grape varieties and modern winemaking coexist in harmony. In the north, Vinho Verde delivers fresh, lively whites with vibrant acidity, while the Douro Valley home of Port offers structured reds from terraced vineyards carved into steep granite slopes. Inland, the Dão region is known for elegant, age-worthy wines shaped by forested hills and granite soils. Further south, Lisbon and Tejo produce versatile wines influenced by Atlantic breezes and river valleys, balancing fruit and freshness. In the sun-drenched Alentejo, warm days and open landscapes yield bold, approachable reds and increasingly expressive whites.

WINES FROM SPAIN

Wine Geography of Spain

“A Mosaic of Terroirs and Time”

Spain is a land of contrast and character, where centuries of tradition meet bold regional diversity. From the Atlantic coast to the Mediterranean, and across the heartland's high plateaus, each region brings its own identity and rhythm to winemaking. In the north, Rias Baixas and Ribeiro express freshness and minerality through Albariño and Treixadura, while Bierzo and Valdeorras reveal the finesse of Mencía and Godello.

SPAIN

Moving inland, Ribera del Duero and Rioja produce some of the country's most structured and age-worthy reds. Along the Mediterranean, Valencia, Alicante, Jumilla, and Manchuela showcase the power of sun-kissed Monastrell and Garnacha. In Penedès and the Cava zone, Spain shines with world-class sparkling wines. The central plains of Castilla-La Mancha and Castilla y León reveal expressive wines and singular Vinos de Pago, while even Madrid has earned a place on the map with high-altitude reds.

Spain's wine map is dynamic, authentic, and deeply rooted in place offering a mosaic of styles that reflect its landscapes, climates, and native grapes.
